MEMORANDUM FOR: Director of Central Intelligence

FROM:

Director, Office of External Affairs

SUBJECT: Invitation to Address Students of the Stanford-in-Government Program

1. Action Requested: Accept or decline an invitation to address student interns from the Stanford-in-Government Summer Speaker Program in Washington, DC.

2. Background:
coordinators for the Stanford-in-Government Speakers Program have invited you to address Stanford students who will be interning this summer in Washington, DC. The goal of the Speaker Program is to enhance the interns' Washington experience by providing an opportunity to share political concerns directly with government officials. The Speaker Program is designed to give politically aspiring students an opportunity to meet and discuss currently debated issues with high-level individuals. In view of your prominent political position in our national government, they would feel honored by your participation in their program.

The audience would comprise 40 to 50 interns from freshmen to seniors majoring in political science and history. Other government officials who have spoken to the group are Senator Henry Jackson, Congressman Jack Kemp, and Eugene Rostow. This year they have invited Secretary of State George Schultz, Presidential Advisor Edwin Meese and FBI Director William Webster and a number of Senators and Representatives. Wednesday, 6 July, at 4:30 p.m., was suggested as a tentative date and time, but they are quite flexible and will accommodate your schedule.

3. Recommendation: We believe this group's needs could be adequately satisfied by allowing Public Affairs to arrange a briefing of the interns at Headquarters as we do with other college groups. Hans Heymann would be available to meet with them and speak on the general topic of "Intelligence Today."
